Students of the Month

9th Grade Nominees: Ben LeFever, Karis Rietema, Korie Betten, Madi Dykstra, and Victoria Duren.

9th Grade Winner: Jeremiah Smith-Post: Jeremiah enters the room and leaves it a brighter place because of his positive attitude and impact on classmates. He is always working with peers, helping with ideas, encouraging others, or offering new insight to their project in a meaningful way. You can't help but feel his positivity as you work with him.

10th Grade Nominees: Alivia Banks and Zoe Rabbers

10th Grade Winner: Lexi Mersman: Lexi has been phenomenal in helping those around her, specifically one of our exchange students. During class, she has asked to be sat next to this individual to ensure that she can help her in understanding directions, content, and assignments. She frequently checks in on her and assists her in any way possible. Additionally, on a day that Lexi knew her and others would be absent from their lunch table, Lexi ensured that this exchange student had another group to sit with. Finally, Lexi has done this all in a way that is discrete; therefore, ensuring that the exchange student does not feel embarrassed in any way. Lexi truly is one of a kind.

11th Grade Nominees: Destiny Bradbury

11th Grade Winner: Jayce Hammond: Jayce is a student that can be counted on to work with anyone due to his caring nature. He is very kind and compassionate towards others even when he doesn't receive the same in return. He showcases his empathy in the classroom quietly, but he's always a student that cares about others.

12th Grade Nominees: Yosgart Garcia, Jenna Dozeman, Yelena Orozco

12th Grade Winner: Abby Miedema: Abby is a constant, dependable supporter of her peers. Leading with empathy through grace, patience, and joy, Abby is always willing to help explain things to her peers. While doing so, she is actively encouraging them to persevere through productive struggle, giving appropriate helpful hints, and affirming them that they can do it. So thankful for her leadership!
