Student Announcements

A group of students are participating in a contest for the record player company, Crosley. They designed a cruiser, and need your help. They would appreciate it if you could support them by voting for Hamilton High School through this link:

<https://crosleyradio.com/cruiser-contest-voting-region-4>

They need to beat out the Region Four schools to make it to the final voting out of 250 schools in the US.

Henry Prins ... please stop and see Suzie sometime TODAY.

Hawks Landing will be open TODAY during both lunches. Make sure you check out the new sweatshirts on display in the library showcase. They accept cash, card, Apple & Google Pay, and checks. You might want a new sweatshirt for the snow this weekend!

Students ... If you missed the parent meeting / Dutch Dance sign up, it's not too late! Sign up sheets and permission slips are in the Main Office for returning and new dancers! Every dancer must have a permission slip signed by a parent!

The Theatre department is proud to open its performance season this week with A Night of 1 Acts '25, featuring two shows for the price of one ...

A Simple Task and American History in 60

Performances are tomorrow and Friday at 7pm and Saturday at 2pm.

Tickets are available in the Main Office and online (<http://hamiltonhs.seatyourself.biz>).

Remember that seating is limited, so get your tickets before it is too late.

The Robotics Team is now accepting student applications for the upcoming season.

You can learn more about the process at this webpage: <https://tinyurl.com/6114Cyber>

The application deadline is November 9th.
